

EVENT WE RECOMMEND FOR JANUARY

MUSICAL PRODUCED BY LOCAL TALENT AND WRITTEN AND COMPOSED BY HIS BROTHER

Member of our Finlandia Foundation National Capital Chapter, Donald Vierimaa, will produce a new musical play written and composed by his brother Jay Alexander. They have invited all FFNCC members and their friends to come and enjoy the play:

THE TWENTIES, Remembering Bix Beiderbecke, a cornet player

This musical is placed in the 1920s and contains fun facts, historical events, drama, comedy and six new original songs. The musical is written around the legendary jazz cornet player, Bix Beiderbecke. Four professional actors/singers will entertain you, and a narrator will educate you with facts about the 1920s.

There will be six performances: Friday, January 20 (7:30 P.M.); Saturday, January 21 (2 pm and 7:30 p.m.); Friday, January 27 (7:30 p.m.); Saturday, January 28 (2 pm and 7:30 p.m.) Tickets at the door are only $15, and under 16 free. The doors open one-half hour before the performance.

Event Location: James Lee Community Theater, 2855 Annandale Road in Falls Church, VA near Highway 50 (Arlington Blvd). Free parking, but please arrive early as the Center requires everyone to sign in.
